Benefit from the cost advantage

Feedback and logistics are the top two cost components of petrochemicals products where the Gulf enjoys an advantage over Asia and Europe. First, feedstock cost is lower in the Gulf owing to its rich oil and gas reserves.

This cheap and assured supply provides a significant competitive advantage to the Gulf Players vis-à-vis their global competitors who procure feedstock at market rates. Secondly, the GCC's closeness to demand clusters, specifically India and China offers a significant logistic cost advantage.

Capitalize on the UAE Advantage

- The trade hub of the Middle East
- Major Polymer processing center
- Gateway to GCC and African countries
- Modern ports and logistics facilities
- Free Trade Zones
- Tax Free Environment
- Availability of highly skilled workforce
- Favourable labour laws
- Large hydrocarbon resources
